Soft hues take center stage: the blue resembles a summer sky, while clusters of pink flowers glow like rosy clouds. Tiny light-blue blooms and tender green leaves dot the design, making the whole pattern feel like a vivid garden sketch. As blue, pink, green and other colors interweave, it creates a bright yet elegant floral courtyard scene.

Navy blue serves as the base of an old nautical chart, while "stamps" cut out fragments of the blue sea: crab claws grasp the salty breeze, seahorses sway gently tangled in seaweed, seashells enclose pearl whispers, and sailboats carry star shells toward the coconut shore. It's the ocean sealing a journey into a mailer—within each "stamp" lies a blue sea story encountered by the voyager.

SUMMER FRUIT PARTY

The wind blows through the orchard, carrying the sweet scent of pineapples and rich aroma of mangoes, gently settling on this fabric. Pineapples bear the forest breeze, orange mangoes glisten with morning dew, pink peaches hold soft sweetness, and lychees and cherries cluster like honeyed bunches. Blue butterflies perch on fruit buds, weaving the orchard's whispers into the patterns—at the touch of your fingertips, you can almost hear the sweet murmurs of summer wind and fruits.

THE PULSE OF SPRING

Representative spring and summer flowers such as roses, daisies, and clusters of small flowers are selected. Their delicate forms are depicted through exquisite hand-drawn lines, capturing the vibrant texture of spring and summer blooms. This creates visual layers that are either fresh and elegant or lively and colorful, echoing the rich rhythm of the spring and summer seasons.

The Warm Sun * of Spring and Summer

Taking spring and summer pastoral natural landscapes as the source of inspiration, the design is crafted around elements such as "sunshine, flowers, and insects" to exude vitality and warmth. It features fresh and soft warm tones like warm pink, gentle yellow, and off-white, conveying the brightness and vibrancy of summer, and making colors a link connecting seasonal emotions with visual aesthetics.

FABRIC DISPLAY

Taking sunflowers and pastoral natural elements as the core design inspiration, this collection creates a matrix of fabric products that blend warm texture with practical value. Covering fabric bags, home bedding, and fabric series, it infuses life spaces and daily outfits with a sunlit pastoral charm like the warm sun.

Gentle Secret Realm

Taking "a shallow sea adventure from a child's perspective" as the narrative core, we weave pink octopuses, chubby blue whales, gently swaying seaweed, and sea-shells into a vivid underwater story. We aim for every application to become an extension of this shallow sea fairy tale, allowing these soft underwater creatures to accompany every child in turning daily life into an adventure.

🐻 Languid Afternoon 🐻

Taking koalas and spring pastoral scenery as the core design inspiration, this collection blends the lazy, cute demeanor of koalas with spring-summer flowers and soft geometric elements. The color palette features marshmallow-like light blue, light pink, and off-white, replicating the sun-softened texture of eucalyptus forests. It echoes the relaxed atmosphere of "lazy afternoons" and "spring-summer warm sun," while incorporating playful cartoon charm—making it suitable for both children's products and home scenarios.

Prologue of Midsummer in Scents

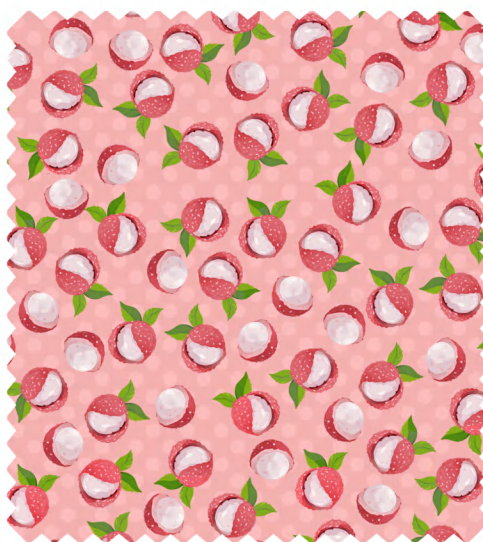

The inspiration for this series comes from the unique scents and natural charm of summer, celebrating the dual beauty of the sense of smell and sight in summer. Jasmine petals weave smooth curves, and the thin shell texture of lychees transforms into lively patterns, adding vitality to the design. The delicate fragrance of jasmine and the rich aroma of lychees are hidden in the texture of the patterns. The visual rhythm of light and dark echoes the olfactory layers, making every inch of the fabric carry the sweet memories that can be touched in the sweltering summer heat.

Blue Summer: Woven Waves

In this summer seaside patchwork, dolphins shatter the crest of the waves, seagulls carry the salty wind and slant across, lighthouses carry the stars and the moon, waves roll up the silver, the shallow beach lies soft white, and the blue light weaves the lively and relaxed summer night seaside.
